ONE DESPERATE EFFORT TO CRUSH THE RUSSIANS

Will Withdraw Troops From France and Belgium and Send Them to the East—Heavy Austrian Artillery Before Verdun to Go to Poland. Hungarian Cavalry to Go From West to Cracow in Galicia—Garros, Celebrated French Aviator, Who Has Made Flights in Texas, Was Captured by the Germans Today—Germany, It Is Announced, Has Abandoned the Offensive in France and Will Maintain Only a Defensive There—Both France and Germany Claiming Gains—Austrian Attacks Have Subsided—Spain Asked to Declare Herself.

[By Associated Press.]

Geneva, Switzerland, April 19.—A dispatch received here gives the impression that the Germans have decided to concentrate their energies on the Eastern campaign. It is said that Germany has decided to transfer the Austrian heavy artillery now before Verdun to Poland, and to send back to Cracow in West Galicia the Hungarian cavalry now on the Western front.

GARROS CAPTURED.

[By Associated Press.]
Berlin, April 19.—(Official.)—Roland G. Garros, the famous French aviator, was captured at Ingelmunster in Belgium today.

KNOWN IN TEXAS.

[By Associated Press.]
Dallas, Tex., April 19.—Garros has flown here and in other Texas cities.

Germany Makes Important Changes.

[By Associated Press.]
Rome, April 19.—The abandonment by the German general staff of their plans for a general offensive in France, and of their intention to remain on the defensive there, is inferred by dispatches received here. It is said this decision is indicated by official communications to the Italian Cabinet, as well as by statements of Germans in official circles, and is taken to mean the German hope of further penetration into France held before, has been put aside.

German Statement.

[By Associated Press.]
Berlin, April 19.—(Official.)—South of Ypres yesterday the British were ejected from minor German positions they held. British attacks along the railroad from Ypres to Comines broke down with heavy losses to them. The French attacks at Combres and in the Vosges failed.

Between the Meuse and the Moselle there is only artillery fighting. The British and French reports concerning victories on the Western front are all inventions. The Eastern front is unchanged.

French Statement.

[By Associated Press.]
Paris, April 19.—(Official.)—The British yesterday in Belgium, near Zwartalen, captured two hundred yards of German trenches and held them despite counter attacks.

The French were successful on both banks of the river Fecht in Alsace and are pressing the advance on the north bank.

Southwest of Colmar the French made important progress. Two German aeroplanes dropped bombs on Belfort, but there were no casualties.

Austrian Attacks Subside.

[By Associated Press.]
Petrograd, April 19.—The Austrian attacks on the heights of Mezolaborcz district of Hungary, appear to have definitely subsided.
